

EXHIBIT 275

ACT NO. 7372
BILL NO. 29-0239

TWENTY-NINTH LEGISLATURE OF THE VIRGIN ISLANDS

Regular Session

An Act amending chapter 86 of title 14 of the Virgin Islands Code, to expand the laws of the Territory regarding the monitoring and tracking of sex offenders within this jurisdiction with the purpose of affording greater protection for the people of the Virgin Islands from sexual exploitation and violent crime, preventing child abuse and child pornography, promoting internet safety and educating the community about sex offenders, and for other purposes

WHEREAS, Congress has enacted laws establishing a comprehensive national system for the registration of sex offenders and offenders against children; and

WHEREAS, Congress currently provides grants to the States and Territories under the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant Program in order to provide additional personnel, equipment, supplies, contractual support, training, technical assistance, and information systems for law enforcement, which grants are administered in the Virgin Islands by the Law Enforcement Planning Commission, and

WHEREAS, in order to encourage States and Territories to amend their statutes in conformance with the Federal Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (hereinafter, "SORNA"), Congress has determined that federal grant funds provided under the Edward Byrne Memorial Justice Assistance Grant Program shall be reduced by 10% for those States and Territories who have not yet implemented the SORNA statutory amendments; Now, Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Legislature of the Virgin Islands:

SECTION 1. Section 1721 of Title 14 of the Virgin Islands Code is amended in the following instances:

(1) Subsection 1721(b) is replaced with the following language:

"(b) The term "sex offense" as used in this code includes those offenses contained in 42 U.S.C. §16911(5) and those offenses enumerated in Sections 1721A and 1721B of this chapter or any other covered offense under Virgin Islands law except as limited by subparagraphs 1 or 2:

(1) An offense involving consensual sexual conduct is not a sex offense for the purposes of this chapter if the victim:

(a) was an adult, unless the adult was under the custodial authority of the offender at the time of the offense; or

(b) was at least thirteen (13) years old and the offender was not more than four (4) years older than the victim.

(2) A foreign conviction is not a sex offense for the purposes of this chapter unless it was obtained either:

(i) under the laws of Canada, the United Kingdom, Australia, New Zealand, or under the laws of any foreign country or jurisdiction within the Caribbean, which includes but is not limited to: Jamaica, Haiti, Trinidad & Tobago, St. Lucia, Grenada, St. Vincent & the Grenadines, Antigua & Barbuda, St. Kitts, Nevis, Dominica, the Netherlands Antilles, Belize, the Bahamas, Cuba, Dominican Republic, Guyana and Barbados, or

(ii) under the laws of any foreign country when the United States State Department in its Country Reports on Human Rights Practices has concluded that an independent judiciary generally or vigorously enforced the right to a fair trial in that country during the year in which the conviction occurred. Subsections 1721 (c) through (f) are deleted.”

(3) New Subsections 1721(c) through (w) are added with the following language:

“(c) The term “conviction” means:

(1) An adult sex offender is “convicted” for the purposes of this chapter if the sex offender has been subjected to penal consequences based on a conviction of one of the sex offenses defined in this Chapter however the conviction may be styled.

(2) A juvenile offender is “convicted” for purposes of this chapter if the juvenile offender is either:

Prosecuted and found guilty as an adult for a sex offense: or

Is adjudicated delinquent as a juvenile for a sex offense, but only if the offender is 14 years of age or older at the time of the offense and the offense adjudicated was comparable to or more severe than aggravated sexual abuse (as described in either subsection (a) or (b) of section 2241 of title 18, United States Code), or was an attempt or conspiracy to commit such an offense.

(3) A foreign conviction is one obtained outside of the United States.

- (d) The term "foreign" means outside of the United States.
- (e) The term "employee" as used in this chapter includes, but is not limited to an individual who is self-employed or works for any other entity, regardless of compensation. Volunteers of a government agency or organization are included within the definition of employee for registration purposes.
- (f) "Immediate" and "immediately" mean within 3 business days.
- (g) The term "imprisonment" refers to incarceration pursuant to a conviction, regardless of the nature of the institution in which the offender serves the sentence. The term is to be interpreted broadly to include, for example, confinement in a state "prison" as well as in a federal, military, foreign, BIA, private or contract facility, or a local or tribal "jail". Persons under "house arrest" following conviction of a covered sex offense are required to register pursuant to the provisions of this chapter during their period of "house arrest."
- (h) The term "confined" refers to persons who are adjudicated "not guilty by reason of insanity" by a court of this territory and are therefore sentenced to a period of confinement in a mental health facility in the territory or, pursuant to the terms of a contractual agreement, in a facility in the United States.
- (i) The term "jurisdiction" as used in this chapter refers to the 50 states, the District of Columbia, the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, Guam, American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, the United States Virgin Islands, and any Indian tribe that elected to function as a SORNA registration and notification jurisdiction pursuant to PL 109-248 Section 127 (42 U.S.C. §16927).
- (j) The terms "reside" and "resides" mean, with respect to an individual, the location of the individual's home or other place where the individual habitually lives or sleeps for more than 30 days per year. Moreover, all visitors and individuals who are required to register pursuant to this Chapter and who will be present in the territory for less than 30 days in any given year, must contact the Department of Justice in order to notify the Department of his or her presence in the territory as well as all arrival and departure information.
- (k) The term "sex offender" means a person convicted of a sex offense.
- (l) The term "sexual act" means:

(1) contact between the penis and the vulva or the penis and the anus, and for purposes of this definition contact involving the penis occurs upon penetration, however slight;

(2) contact between the mouth and the penis, the mouth and the vulva, or the mouth and the anus;

(3) the penetration, however slight, of the anal or genital opening of another by a hand or finger or by any object, with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person; or

(4) the intentional touching of the genitalia of another person that has not attained the age of 18 years with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass, degrade, or arouse or gratify the sexual desire of any person.

(m) The term “sexual contact” means the intentional touching, either directly or through the clothing of the genitalia, anus, groin, breast, inner thigh, or buttocks of any person with an intent to abuse, humiliate, harass or degrade another person; or with the intent to arouse or gratify the sexual desires of any person.

(n) The phrase “intimate parts” means the primary genital area, anus, groin, inner thigh, buttocks or breasts.

(o) The term “student” means a person who enrolls in or attends either a private or public education institution, including a secondary school, trade or professional school, or an institution of higher education. The term also includes a person who is an intern, extern or apprentice studying in the Territory.

(p) The acronym “SORNA” means the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (Title I of the Adam Walsh Child Protection and Safety Act of 2006 P.L. 109-248), 42 U.S.C. §16911 et. seq., as amended.

(q) The term “sex offender registry” means the registry of sex offenders, and a notification program, maintained by the Virgin Islands Department of Justice.

(r) The acronym “NSOR” means the national database maintained by the Federal Bureau of Investigation pursuant to 42 U.S.C., §16919.

(s) The “SMART Office” is The Office of sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehending, Registering, and Tracking, which was established within the United States Department of Justice under the general authority of the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §16945.

(t) The acronym NSOPW means the Dru Sjodin National Sex Offender Public Website (NSOPW). The public website maintained by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to 42 U.S.C. §16920.

(u) A “tier 1 sex offender”, or a “sex offender” designated as “tier 1”, is one who has been convicted of a “tier 1” sex offense as defined in Section 1721B(a).

(v) A “tier 2 sex offender”, or a “sex offender” designated as “tier 2”, is one who has been either convicted of a “tier 2” sex offense as defined in Section 1721B(b), or who is subject to the recidivist provision of Section 1721B(b)(1).

(w) A “tier 3 sex offender”, or a “sex offender” designated as “tier 3”, is one who has been either convicted of a “tier 3” sex offense as defined in Section 1721B(c), or who is subject to the recidivist provision of Section 1721B(c)(1)."

SECTION 4. Section 1722 of Title 14 of the Virgin Islands Code is amended in the following instances:

(1) Subsection 1722(a) is replaced with the following language:

(a) A person who is convicted in this Territory or in any state, territory or Indian tribe of the United States, any foreign jurisdiction or in any court of competent jurisdiction of any of the covered offenses included in Section 1721A or a similar offense to the covered offenses in 1721A who moves to or returns to this Territory from another jurisdiction for the purpose of establishing residency, employment, or becoming a student or who did not intend to but who eventually establishes residency, obtains employment or becomes a student within the jurisdiction of this Territory is required to register in this Territory.

(2) Subsection 1722(b) is replaced with the following language:

(b) A person who is required to register as a sex offender in any state, territory or Indian tribe of the United States, under federal law, under military law, under the law of any foreign jurisdiction or by order of any court of competent jurisdiction who moves to or returns to this Territory from another jurisdiction for the purpose of establishing residency, employment, or becoming a student or who did not intend to but who eventually establishes residency, obtains employment or becomes a student within the jurisdiction of this Territory is required to register in this Territory.

(3) Subsection 1722(c) is replaced with the following language:

(c) The duty to register as a sex offender under this Chapter applies to persons convicted or adjudicated not guilty by reason of insanity, of any of the covered offenses listed in Section 1721A of this Chapter or similar offenses, as determined by:

(1) A court of the Virgin Islands;

(2) A court of any other jurisdiction of the United States, including all 50 states, territories and Indian tribes;

(3) A federal court of the United States;

(4) A military court of the United States; or

(6) Subsection 1722 (d) is deleted and Subsection 1722 (e) becomes the new 1722(d).

SECTION 5. Section 1723 of Title 14 of the Virgin Islands Code is amended in the following instances:

- (1) Subsection 1723(a) is replaced with the following language:

“(a) Upon conviction of or the acceptance of a plea to any of the offenses set forth in this Chapter, the sentencing court shall certify that the person is a sex offender and in which tier the person will be placed. The sentencing court shall consider a report from the Sex Offender Registry Board, if any, prior to or during such certification and classification. The classification of a sex offender will be based upon the guidelines set forth in this Chapter. The court may include the certification in the order of commitment, if any, and judgment of conviction. The court may also advise the sex offender of his or her duties under this Chapter. Failure to include the certification in the order of commitment or the judgment of conviction shall not relieve a sex offender of the obligations imposed by this Chapter.”

- (2) A new Subsection 1723(c) is added with the following language:

“(c) The Governor shall designate one of the members of the territorial board as chairman. The chairman shall be the executive and administrative head of the board and shall have the authority and responsibility for directing assignments of the members of the board.

Each member of the board, including the member designated as the chairman, shall serve until the member's term of office expires and a successor is designated in accordance with law, whichever first occurs. However, any member of the Board may be removed for cause. Any member chosen to fill a vacancy occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be appointed for the remainder of the unexpired term of the member whom he is to succeed. As long as there are three sitting members, a vacancy shall not impair the right of the remaining members to exercise the powers of the board.

The Attorney General or a designee shall notify and advise the Board of its opportunity to file a report when a conviction or the acceptance of a plea occurs for any of the offenses covered in this Chapter. The Attorney General or a designee shall also notify the Board of the time frame within which a pre-sentence report must be submitted to the court. Upon the Board's determination that a report will be submitted, the report shall be submitted to the Office of Probation and Parole prior to sentencing for inclusion with the pre sentencing report.”

- (3) A new Subsection 1723(d) is added with the following language:

“(d) The territorial board shall meet at least four (4) times per year and whenever the need arises. The board shall have the following powers and duties:

(1) to provide reports to the sentencing court regarding convicted sex offenders;

(2) to assist the Attorney General in promulgating guidelines for the registering, monitoring, and tracking of sex offenders;

(3) to review and report to the Attorney General on the types of treatment available to a sex offender while he or she is incarcerated in the territory;

(4) upon the request of a tier 1 sex offender for a reduction in the required registration period, to make recommendations to the Attorney General regarding such request which includes a determination on the risk of re-offense and the degree of dangerousness a sex offender poses to the community;

(5) to make assessments and recommendations to the parole board, prior to release on parole, regarding the risk of re-offense and the degree of dangerousness a sex offender poses to the community;

(6) Consider the following factors when making a determination on (3) and (4) above:

(A) criminal history factors indicative of a high risk of re-offense and degree of dangerousness posed to the public, including:

(i) whether the sex offender has a mental abnormality;

(ii) whether the sex offender's conduct is characterized by repetitive and compulsive behavior;

(iii) whether the sex offender was an adult who committed a sex offense on a child;

(iv) the age of the sex offender at the time of the commission of the first sex offense;

(v) whether the sex offender has been adjudicated to be a sexually dangerous person or is a person released from civil commitment; and

(vi) whether the sex offender served the maximum term of incarceration;

(B) other criminal history factors to be considered in determining risk and degree of dangerousness, including:

(i) the relationship between the sex offender and the victim;

(ii) whether the offense involved the used of a weapon, violence or infliction of bodily injury; and

(iii) the number, date and nature of prior offenses.

(C) physical conditions that minimize risk of re-offense including, but not limited to, debilitating illness;

(D) whether the sex offender was a juvenile when he committed the offense, his response to treatment and subsequent criminal history;

(E) whether psychological or psychiatric profiles indicate a risk of recidivism;

(F) the sex offender's history of alcohol or substance abuse;

(G) recent threats against persons or expressions of intent to commit additional offenses;

(H) review of any victim impact statement;

(I) review of any materials submitted by the sex offender, his attorney or others on behalf of such offender;

(J) conditions of release that minimize risk of re-offense and degree of dangerousness posed to the public, including whether the sex offender will be under probation or parole supervision, whether such sex offender is receiving counseling, therapy or treatment and whether such sex offender will be residing in a home situation that provides guidance and supervision, including sex offender-specific treatment in a community-based residential program;

(K) the sex offender's participation in sex offender treatment and counseling while incarcerated and his response to such treatment or counseling; and

(L) recent behavior, including behavior while incarcerated or while supervised on probation or parole.

(7) to assist the Attorney General in developing a plan to locate and verify the current addresses of sex offenders;

(8) to assist the Attorney General with disseminating sex offender registry information and educating the community about sex offenders;

(9) to gather up-to-date information and report to the Attorney General concerning any new requirements and trends regarding the registration, tracking and monitoring of sex offenders; and

(10) to provide advice to the Attorney General regarding policies and procedures for the registration, tracking and monitoring of sex offenders.

SECTION 6. Section 1724 of Title 14 of the Virgin Islands Code is amended in the following instances:

(1) Subsection 1724(a) introductory paragraph is replaced with the following language:

“(a) A sex offender required to register in this territory of the United States Virgin Islands under this Chapter shall appear in person, unless otherwise required, in accordance with the policies and procedures of the Department of Justice, to register with the Department of Justice on forms provided by the Attorney General of the United States Virgin Islands and shall do so in the following time frame:

(2) Subsection 1724(a)(1) is amended to delete the language appearing after “Shall register” and replacing it with the language “within three (3) business days.” Section 1724(a)(1) will then read as follows:

(1) A person required to register and who is under supervision in the community on probation, parole, furlough, work release, or a similar program shall register within three (3) business days of being placed under supervision.

(3) Subsection 1724 (a)(2) is replaced with the following language:

(2) A person convicted by the courts of this territory for a covered sex offense and incarcerated or confined in a correctional or juvenile facility or a psychiatric facility within or outside of this territory must register before being released from incarceration or detention.

(4) Subsection 1724 (a)(3) is replaced with the following language:

(3) A person convicted by the courts of this territory for a covered sex offense but is not incarcerated, under supervision or confined must register within three (3) business days of sentencing.

(5) Subsection 1724 (a)(4) is replaced with the following language:

(4) A person who is convicted in any state, territory or Indian tribe of the United States, any foreign jurisdiction or in any federal or military court of one of the covered offenses or an offense similar to one of the covered offenses who moves to or returns to the United States Virgin Islands from another jurisdiction for the purpose of establishing residency, employment, or becoming a student or who did not intend to but who eventually establishes residency, obtains employment or becomes a student within the jurisdiction of this territory shall register within three (3) business days of moving to or returning to the Territory.

(6) Subsection 1724(b) is deleted and replaced with the following language:

(b) All sex offenders required to register in this jurisdiction shall immediately appear in person at the Department of Justice to report the following changes within the prescribed time period and in accordance with the following:

(1) Except as indicated in 1724(b)(4) below, all sex offenders required to register in this jurisdiction shall appear in person at the Department of Justice within three (3) business days after a change is made to update any changes to their name, residence (including termination of residency), temporary lodging information, vehicle information, internet identifiers, or telephone numbers. In the event of a change in temporary lodging, all sex offenders required to register in this jurisdiction shall within three (3) business days inform the Department of Justice, in person, of any changes to their temporary lodging information and both the sex offender and the Department of Justice shall notify within three (3) business days the jurisdiction in which the sex offender will be temporarily staying.

(2) Any sex offender who is a student in any capacity including, but not limited to, an intern or apprentice within the jurisdiction of the territory of the United States Virgin Islands, regardless of location, that changes their school, or otherwise terminates their schooling, or resumes their schooling shall within three (3) business days appear in person at the Department of Justice to update that information. The Department of Justice shall ensure that each jurisdiction in which the sex offender is required to register, or was required to register prior to the updated information being given, are notified within three (3) business days of the change.

(3) Any sex offender who is employed in the territory of the United States Virgin Islands in any capacity, including, but not limited to the Government of the Virgin Islands or a private employer or is otherwise employed within the territory of the United States Virgin Islands, regardless of location, that changes their employment, or otherwise terminates their employment, shall appear within three (3) business days in person at the Department of Justice to update that information. The Department of Justice shall ensure that each jurisdiction in which the sex offender is required to register prior to the updated information being given, are notified within three (3) business days of the change.

(4) All sex offenders required to register in this jurisdiction shall appear in person at the Department of Justice at least twenty one (21) calendar days prior to any intended travel outside of the United States and provide information about their intended travel as may be required by the Attorney General; provided, however that the Attorney General may at his discretion reduce this twenty-one (21) day notice requirement if a sex offender requests such a reduction and provides information in support of the request.

(7) Subsection 1724 (c) is replaced with the following language:

(c) Before moving from the United States Virgin Islands to another jurisdiction within the United States, a person required to register shall register his new address, temporary or permanent, with the Department of Justice before he leaves the territory. Upon arriving in the new state, territory or Indian tribe, a person required to register shall report said arrival to the Department of Justice and register with the agency responsible for registering sex offenders in the new state, territory or Indian tribe of residency within three (3) days of his arrival. The registration information of that person will be removed from the Virgin Islands registry when proof is provided showing that he is registered in the new state, territory or Indian tribe. If a person required to register moves to a foreign country, he must register his new address with the Department of Justice before he leaves the territory and register in the foreign country if there is a registration requirement in that country.

(8) Subsection 1724(d) is replaced with the following language:

(d) A sex offender who is required to register shall, at a minimum, appear in person at the Department of Justice for the purposes of verification and keeping their registration current in accordance with the following time frames:

(1) For “Tier 1” offenders, once every year for 15 years from the time of release from custody for a sex offender who is incarcerated for the registration offense or from the date of sentencing for a sex offender who is not incarcerated for the registration offense.

(2) For a “Tier 2” offenders, once every 180 days for 25 years from the time of release from custody for a sex offender who is incarcerated for the registration offense or from the date of sentencing for a sex offender who is not incarcerated for the registration offense.

(3) For “Tier 3” offenders, once every 90 days for the rest of their lives.

(4) For sex offenders classified in Tier 1, Tier 2 or Tier 3 who are homeless, once every week for the period of years prescribed above based upon his or her tier classification until he or she declares a permanent residence after which the frequency of registration shall be as prescribed above according to his or her tier classification.

(9) Subsection 1724 (e) is replaced with the following language:

(e) A sex offender may have their period of registration reduced as follows:

(1) A “Tier 1” sex offender may have his or her period of registration reduced to 10 years only after he or she has maintained a clean record for 10 consecutive years and the Sex Offender Registry Board has made a favorable determination regarding the risk of re-offense and the degree of dangerousness the sex offender poses to the community.

(2) A “Tier 3” sex offender may have his or her period of registration reduced to 25 years only if he or she was adjudicated delinquent of an offense as a juvenile that required Tier 3 registration and he or she has maintained a clean record for 25 consecutive years and the Sex Offender Registry Board has made a favorable determination regarding the risk of re-offense and the degree of dangerousness the sex offender poses to the community.

(10) Subsection 1724(f) is replaced with the following language:

(f) For the purposes of this Chapter, a sex offender has a clean record which would allow for the reduction of his or her period of registration if:

- (1) The sex offender has not been convicted of any offense, for which imprisonment for more than 1 year may be imposed;
- (2) The sex offender has not been convicted of any sex offense;
- (3) The sex offender has successfully completed, without revocation, any period of supervised release, probation, or parole; and
- (4) The sex offender has successfully completed an appropriate certified sex offender treatment program.

(11) A new Subsection 1724(g) is added to read as follows:

(g) All in person appearances to register or to keep registration current must be in accordance with the following:

- (1) At each in person verification, the sex offender shall permit the Department of Justice to take a photograph of the offender.
- (2) At each in person verification, the sex offender shall review existing information maintained by the Department of Justice for accuracy.
- (3) If any new information or change in information is obtained at an in person verification, the Department of Justice shall immediately notify all other jurisdictions in which the sex offender is required to register of the information or change in information.
- (4) The sex offender shall provide any additional information required by the Attorney General.
- (5) If any new information or change in information is obtained at an in person verification, the Department of Justice shall immediately update the public website, if applicable, and update information in NCIC/NSOR.

SECTION 7. A new Section 1724A titled “Where registration is required” is added to read as follows:

§1724A. Where registration is required.

SECTION 14. A new Section 1732 titled “Retroactive registration” is added to read as follows:

§1732. Retroactive registration

(a) The following three categories of persons who were previously convicted and who were not previously required to register, shall be required to register and the Department of Justice shall establish policies and procedures to ensure that they are subject to the registration and updating requirements of this chapter:

(1) Sex offenders who are presently incarcerated in the Territory or under the supervision of the Office of Probation and Parole of the Territory, whether for a covered sex offense or other crime,

(2) Sex offenders already registered or subject to a pre-existing sex offender registration requirement under the Territory's laws, and

(3) Sex offenders re-entering the Territory's justice system due to conviction for any crime.

(b) The Department of Justice shall ensure recapture of the sex offenders mentioned in this Section within the following timeframe to be calculated from the date of passage of this Chapter:

(1) For Tier 1 sex offenders, 1 year

(2) For Tier 2 sex offenders, 180 days, and

(3) For Tier 3 sex offenders, 90 days

(c) To ensure the recapture of these sex offenders within the above timeframe, the Virgin Islands Bureau of Corrections and the Office of Probation and Parole shall work with the Department of Justice.

SECTION 15. A new Section 1733 titled "Failure to appear for registration and absconding" is added to read as follows:

§1733. Failure to appear for registration and absconding

(a) In the event a sex offender fails to register with the territory of the United States Virgin Islands as required by this Chapter, the Attorney General or designee shall immediately inform the jurisdiction that provided notification that the sex offender was to commence residency, employment, or school attendance with the territory that the sex offender failed to appear for registration.

(b) If the Attorney General or designee receives information that a sex offender has absconded, the Attorney General or designee shall make an effort to determine if the sex offender has actually absconded.

(c) In the event no determination can be made that a sex offender has absconded, the Attorney General or designee shall ensure that the Virgin Islands Police Department and any other appropriate law enforcement agency are notified.

(d) If the information indicating the possible absconding came through notice from another jurisdiction or federal authorities, these entities shall be informed that the sex offender has failed to appear and register.

(e) If an absconded sex offender cannot be located, the Attorney General or designee shall take the following steps:

(i) Update the registry to reflect that the sex offender has absconded or is otherwise not capable of being located;

- (ii) Notify the U.S. Marshals Service;
 - (iii) Seek a warrant for the sex offender's arrest. The U.S. Marshals Service or Federal Bureau of Investigations ("FBI") may be contacted in an attempt to obtain a federal warrant for the sex offender's arrest;
 - (iv) Update the NCIC/NSOR to reflect that the sex offender has absconded, or is otherwise not capable of being located; and
 - (v) Enter the sex offender into the National Crime Information Center Wanted Person File.
- (f) In the event a sex offender who is required to register due to their residence, employment or school attendance status fails to do so or otherwise violates a registration requirement of this Chapter, the Attorney General or designee shall take all appropriate follow-up measures including those outlined in this Section. The Attorney General or designee shall first make an effort to determine if the sex offender is actually residing, employed or attending school within the jurisdiction of this territory of the United States Virgin Islands.

SECTION 16. Effective Date. This Act shall take effect immediately upon approval thereof by the Governor.

Thus passed by the Legislature of the Virgin Islands on June 28, 2012.
